Brett,

I just wanted to thank you again for everything. Moments after the attack, when I realized I wouldn't be able to work, all I could think about was how much money I was going to lose. It was supposed to be the most profitable time of the year for my seasonal job and I had just started with a new company. You were available to meet the same day I called. You kept me informed throughout the process. And the outcome was far better than I ever imagined.

Also, a huge thank you for the help in our other matter.

Thanks for everything!
